Dahlia Learns To Give From Her Heart

Dahlia's life as a princess was mixed with the duties of her royal life and her wish to just be a normal girl. The two roles were completely opposite and one never seemed to have anything to do with the other, or so she thought. Other than ribbons, she never really had to share her things, but that was about to change.

It was late fall, and there was a cold chill in the air that hinted at an early winter. Dahlia's mother, the queen, went to Dahlia one evening with a large trunk and requested that Dahlia fill it with warm clothing and shoes from her closet. "Your mother..."

The Bathing Petals Story

WE ARE SOMETIMES ASKED ABOUT HOW THE IDEA CAME FOR OUR SOAP FLOWERS, SO WE THOUGHT WE WOULD INCLUDE THIS LITTLE STORY TO HONOR SOMEONE WHO INSPIRED IT. TERESA WAS ONE OF THE KINDEST WOMEN I HAD MET. IT WAS AT A TIME WHEN SHE WAS IN THE HOSPITAL, AND WE WERE MAKING SOAP BARS. IT SEEMED LIKE A GOOD IDEA TO TAKE HER SOAP FLOWER BARS STUCK ON CRAFT STICKS AND ARRANGED IN A VASE LIKE A BOUQUET OF SORTS. AFTER SHE HAD SETTLED BACK AT HOME, I HOPED THAT SHE WOULD USE THE SOAP FOR HER SKIN. SHE SAID THAT SHE WOULD RATHER LOOK AT THE SOAP BARS THAN USE THEM. ON THE RIDE HOME, THOUGHTS WERE SHUFFLING AROUND ABOUT HOW SHE COULD USE THE SOAP AND ENJOY ITS FLORAL DÉCOR TOO. THAT'S WHEN THE SPARK CAME FOR MAKING SOAP FLOWERS WHERE ONLY ONE PETAL AT A TIME IS USED. WE NOW TRY TO ADD THE DUAL ELEMENT OF FORM AND FUNCTION TO MANY OF OUR DESIGNS SO THAT THEY ARE FULL SENSORY EXPERIENCES OF SIGHT, SMELL, AND TOUCH.
